Kentucky Seed Improvement Association

Associate Application

The Kentucky Seed Improvement Association's Certification Requirements state that any resident or non-resident of Kentucky who is engaged in the production or marketing of seed or agriculture products, as a contract producer, KSIA approved bulk retailer, seed broker, or any other agriculture-related industry may apply to KSIA as an Associate of the Association. Such individuals, firms or corporations have no vote, but may (1) attend and participate in the meetings of the Association, (2) serve on various committees of the Association, or (3) receive mailings and other information from the Association. The Associate membership fee is $50.00.

Attention: Fees paid to the KENTUCKY SEED IMPROVEMENT ASSOCIATION are NOT deductible as a charitable contribution for Federal Tax purposes. However, fees may be deductible as ordinary or necessary business expenses for Federal Income Tax purposes. Any questions regarding deductibility should be referred to your tax counsel.
